

Hi, I'm Melissa Eastwood—a Jesus-loving wife, mom, assistant principal, and youth pastor's sidekick! I'm 43 and happily married to Paul Eastwood, youth pastor at Calvary Baptist Church in Jesup, Georgia. We have three incredible daughters: Summer (20), a nursing major at Piedmont University with a desire to work in Pediatric Oncology; Kaylie (16), a driven high school senior with a heart for missions and a love for going on mission trips; and Addyson (13), a spunky 8th grader who keeps us all on our toes and loves to serve in the children's ministry at church!

By day, I serve as Assistant Principal at Arthur Williams Middle School, and by night (and weekend!), I dive into the beautiful chaos of mom life and ministry life. My heart beats to pour the love of Christ into those around me and to make His name known in everything I do.

In my spare time, you can find me snuggling my pups Daisy and Lily, caring for my backyard chickens, curled up with a good book or crochet project, or giving gardening my best shot—even if my thumb is more brown than green (just ask my husband!). I find peace at the beach hunting for seashells and sharks teeth and joy in God's creation. This life is full, but God is faithful—and I wouldn't trade it for anything.
